Join us for the Annual Chrism Mass

Please join Bishop Marcel and the priests in the diocese, for the annual blessing of the oils at the Chrism Mass. These oils will be distributed among the parishes of the Diocese of Alexandria-Cornwall for use during the next year. At this special Mass, all priests will be given the opportunity to renew their priestly promises during the Liturgy. General seating is available to those who would like to attend. This year's Chrism Mass will be celebrated at the Nativity Co-Cathedral, on Tuesday, April 15th, 2014. The Mass begins at 7:00 pm and will be followed by a social time.

May we try our best to participate in all solemn ceremonies. A gentle reminder: Good Friday is a solemn day of penitence and atonement, a day of fast and abstinence. May we remember what Christ has accomplished for us.

Tentons de participer à toutes ces célébrations durant la semaine. Un rappel que le Vendredi Saint est un jour de pénitence, de jeûne et d'abstinence. Rappelons-nous ce que le Christ a fait pour nous.

The Concrete Desert

My desire is to find a desert with sand dunes as far as the eye can see, a desert permeated with a Presence who I will encounter! To enter into the indefinable mystery so that my heart can beat in time to a divine rhythm. This is the desert I covet, far from my city, far from my preoccupations. This is my dream, one that is impossible and absurd. My soul lives in a desert that is tangible, accessible, and real. The desert is my city; the desert is my daily life. Is this nothing but a dream? Is this a frivolous utopia? These great desert spaces can fill my empty heart and push me beyond my limitations. I search for them in my surroundings to reassure myself and deepen my spirituality!

But in my city, there is no desert, sand or endless dunes. There is no oasis that could ever quench my interior thirst. Yet it is only in my city, my streets, and my surroundings that my desert could possibly exist.

I long for it with my entire being. The great desert of sand that I wish to experience is made up of the dust from the crowds that I meet every day. I found my desert in my city; I found an oasis for my infinite thirst. I am heading right now for this desert, the one in my home that is surrounded by the noises of the city, the daily cycle of events.

I close my eyes and enter my inner oasis, where the city lights dim and a great peace fills my soul and permeates all the facets of my life. A desert in the city? It is possible – I have found it! It is my inner space that is defined by the noise of the city and its concrete monuments. I find a Significant Presence. The Word of God awaits me.
