Dear Parishioners,

A very HAPPY EASTER 2015 to each and every one of you! My first Easter with you and what a joyful celebration. After a rather long Lenten pilgrimage, we are always glad to experience the EASTER joy.

During this Lenten season, our theme was "Benevolent like Him" which invited us to be kind to each other and open our hearts to Christ so that He may come to others around us. Through our Love of Jesus, we again are able to bring "Hospitality", which is the pastoral tool for our diocese, to bring about an environment where Jesus can have a place to go forth and bring change in our communities.

Our deepest gratitude to all who helped prepare, organize and live this most Holy Week. On this holy and blessed occasion, Rick and I wish you abundant blessings and graces from Our Risen Lord, Jesus Christ!

Do spread the Good News that Jesus is alive in our midst!

Chers Paroissiens et Paroissiennes,

Des meilleurs vœux de Joyeuses Fête de Pâques 2015 à chacun et chacune de vous. Ma première Pâques avec vous et quelle joyeuse célébration. De fait après l'expérience d'un long Carême, comme il fait bon de retrouver la fraîcheur et la joie de Pâques.

Durant cette saison du Carême, notre thème cette année était « Bienveillants comme Lui » qui nous invitait à être gentil avec les autres et avoir un cœur ouvert au Christ afin qu'il puisse aller vers les autres autour de nous. À travers notre amour de Jésus, nous avons été capable d'apporter l'Hospitalité qui est l'outil pastoral du diocèse afin d'apporter un environnement où Jésus peut avoir une place et faire un changement dans nos communautés.

Nous sommes profondément reconnaissant envers ceux et celles qui ont aidé à préparer, organiser et à vivre cette Semaine Sainte. À cette occasion, Rick et moi-même vous offre nos meilleurs vœux de paix et de joie dans le Christ Vivant.

Et surtout, n'ayez pas peur de proclamer la Bonne Nouvelle que Jésus est bien vivant au milieu de nous!

Rev. Marc Piché

EASTER SUNDAY (B)

Easter

Alleluia

IN MEMORIUM

EN MÉMOIRE

Being a bit of a liturgical geek, I have many favorite elements of the Easter liturgies, among them the Easter Vigil baptisms, the dark church enlightened by the paschal candle, and the first sprinkling rite of the season.

But what I anticipate most is the return of the Alleluia in full force. We hear it first before the gospel proclamation at the Easter Vigil. It's sung by the priest at the dismissal and uniquely responded to in song by the congregation. This double Alleluia is sung this way only during the Octave of Easter to remind us that this is a special moment in the Church year.

Some parishes practice a ritual before Ash Wednesday called "burying the Alleluia." A cloth on which Alleluia is printed is ceremoniously "buried"—hidden away during Lent. At the Easter celebration, it bursts forth from its tomb along with Jesus. Alleluia, which means "praise God," is a word of joy, hope, and promise. It always feels great to sing it again.

In the Lukan account of the resurrection proclaimed at the Easter Vigil, the disciples are at first confused by the empty tomb but, Scripture says, "they remembered his words." They recalled what Jesus had said about his rising after three days.

On Easter, we remember the word Alleluia after it has been buried for forty days. It's a word that celebrates Jesus' incredible triumph over sin and death, and his promise of new life for us. Remember the Alleluia this day—and throughout the Easter season.

Thanks be to God indeed!
