Oh, have you got a minute?

Just a moment of your day, for here's a chance to spend it in a very useful way:
 You could call an old acquaintance and catch up on their news,
 You could natter to a neighbour, and dissolve away their blues,
 You could make a child feel special just by taking time to hear all the things they burst to tell you, every hope and every fear.
 You could smile upon a stranger who is feeling at a loss,
 You could build a bridge of kindness and invite them then to cross.
 For you see, in just a minute, though it may be all you've got,
 If you use that minute wisely, you'll achieve an awful lot.

Margaret Lyall.
